

How to enrol on a course and utilise the search function

Select catalogue

The image shows a screenshot of the MentorLearn dashboard. At the top left is the logo "MentorLearn". At the top right are icons for search, email, user profile, and a menu. The main header area features an illustration of two people working on laptops with the text "Welcome, Nelson Mata" and "We are happy you stopped by." Below this is a row of four buttons: "Resume" (Business communication), "My Courses" (See courses you are enrolled in), "Catalogue" (See a complete list of available courses), and "Inbox" (Your priority messages). Below that is another row of four buttons: "FAQs" (The answers to your questions), "Resources" (Browse or download resources), "Calendar" (See Calendar scheduled events), and "Calendar" (See Calendar scheduled events). A callout box with a black border and white background is positioned over the "Catalogue" button, containing the text "To start a course from those available to you, select catalogue." with a black arrow pointing down to the button.

Catalogue

The screenshot displays the MentorLearn Catalogue interface. At the top left, the logo "MentorLearn" is visible. The main header area features the word "CATALOGUE" in large white letters on a purple background, accompanied by an illustration of a person presenting a bar chart and two people working at a desk. In the top right corner, there are icons for search, email, user profile, and a menu. Below the header, a navigation bar contains a folder icon, a search bar with the text "alphabetical", and a grid icon. A list of folders is shown below the navigation bar: "Business Protection" (12 items), "GDPR" (1 item), and "Wellbeing" (18 items). A callout box with the text "Within catalogue, narrow your search by selecting the relevant folder." has an arrow pointing to the "Wellbeing" folder. Below the folder list, a grid of course cards is displayed. Each card features a play button icon, the course title, "Online Course", and an action button. The courses shown are: "Business communication" (Resume button), "Communication skills" (Enroll button), "Conflict resolution" (Enroll button), "Coping with Covid-19 anxiety" (Enroll button), and "Cyber security" (Start button).

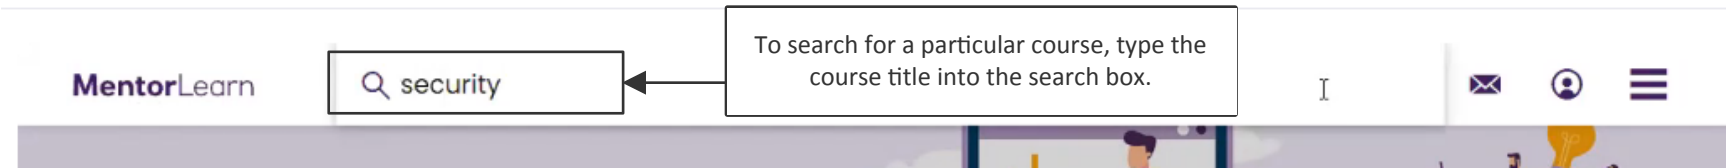

Selection of courses

The screenshot shows the MentorLearn interface. At the top left, the logo "MentorLearn" is visible. In the top right corner, there are icons for search, email, user profile, and a menu. Below the logo, a navigation bar features a "WELLBEING" button with a left-pointing arrow. A callout box points to this button with the text: "The courses available in that folder are then displayed." Below the navigation bar, the breadcrumb "Catalogue > Wellbeing" is shown. To the right of the breadcrumb is a dropdown menu set to "Alphabetical" and a grid icon. The main content area displays a grid of course cards. Each card has a play button icon and a title. The courses are: "Business communication", "Communication skills", "Conflict resolution", "Coping with Covid-19 anxiety", "Financial wellbeing", "Healthy living", "Managing mental health", "Mental health awareness", "Mindfulness", and "Nutrition". Each card includes an "Enroll" button with a plus sign, except for "Business communication" which has a "Resume" button. A callout box points to the "Mental health awareness" card with the text: "Select a course and click enrol." The "Conflict resolution" card also has a share icon in its top right corner.

Starting a course

The image shows a screenshot of the MentorLearn interface with several callouts explaining how to start a course. At the top, three course cards are visible: 'Managing mental health' (Online Course), 'Mental health awareness' (Online Course), and 'Mindfulness' (Online Course). Each card has a 'Start' button. A callout box points to the 'Start' button on the 'Mental health awareness' card, stating: 'Once you are enrolled on a course, select start from within the course catalogue.' Below this, another callout box points to the 'Enroll' button on the 'Mindfulness' card, stating: 'Or start your course from my courses found on the MentorLearn homepage.' The main interface shows a 'Welcome, Nelson Mata' banner with a 'My Courses' button highlighted. A callout box points to this 'My Courses' button, stating: 'Or start your course from my courses found on the MentorLearn homepage.' Below the banner are three navigation buttons: 'Resume', 'My Courses', and 'Catalogue'. A callout box points to the 'My Courses' button, stating: 'Or start your course from my courses found on the MentorLearn homepage.' The 'My Courses' section shows a list of courses, including 'Financial wellbeing' and 'Mental health awareness', each with a 'Start' button.
